Foreign Policy in Times of Crisis: The Role of International by Paul Williams and Michael P. Scharf

In February 2005, Scharf and the Public International Law and Policy Group, a nongovernmental organization he co-founded with Paul Williams, were nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. Shaping Foreign Policy in Times of Crisis: The Role of International Law and the State Department Legal Adviser adds a rich store of empirical evidence to the debate. Based on their insider accounts of the role that international law actually played during the major crises on their watch, the book explores whether international law is real law or just a form of politics that policymakers are free to ignore whenever they perceive it to be in their interest to do so.
