China Land of Dragons and Emperors

All in all, a very good survey of the myriad dragons and emperors who, altogether, brought today's China into being.

The Land of Dragons and Emperors

It also says nothing good about the Victorian-era Brits who seem to have been as narrow-minded as most white colonists and explorers geeze, we can be dumb-as. Mah Chinese Cinderella brings East to West in this concise, reader-friendly history of China that contains more than 80 photographs of famous figures and artifacts. It think it was mostly the scope and subject that was so fascinating though clean, clear writing helps.

China: Land of Dragons and Emperors by Adeline Yen Mah

They even have the cúpla focal which makes our guests feel even more special.

China: Land of Dragons and Emperors by Adeline Yen Mah

I honestly can't believe how little I've known about Chinese history.
