However, the third дума managed to last for 5 years, passing 200 laws and 2500 bills within that time.

The Dumas

The defeat of 1905 provided the spark which ignited social unrest. The дума systems, although failing overall to pass laws and or make any difference politically in Russia, did show signs of progression into a parliamentary Russian system. On his return in 1698 he commenced reforming the country, turning the into a by copying models from Western Europe with the goal of creating a strong, professional army and navy, as well as a strong economic base.
