Muqarnas, Volume 5

Several articles challenge long-held scholarly assumptions on topics such as Mughal portraiture and the atypical square-tower minarets in Herzegovina. The Notes and Sources section announces the discovery of two rare early Abbasid painted ceramic bowls from recent excavations in central Israel.

Muqarnas Volume V: An Annual on Islamic Art and Architecture

Muqarnas 35 begins in Almohad Marrakesh, with one article analyzing the plan of the twelfth-centu. Other topics covered are archaeological finds in Tunisia, and the legacy of Russian modernization efforts in the architecture of East Anatolia, especially the city of Kars. Muqarnas 37 introduces new research on Islamic material culture ranging from Abbasid period mosaics to the early twentieth-century art market.
