Statistics Collected by the State

To The Reverend The Officiating Minister of the Parish of I have the honour to be, Reverend Sir, Your most obedient servant, JOHN RICKMAN. The next census will be carried out from July 6 to August 22, 2010, the most recent was in 2000.

Vision of Britain

Information about the newsletter is available at. This policy change was indisputably the consequence of a heightened recognition by the state of the increasingly multicultural and religiously pluralistic nature of British society, the negative aspects of which had become evident in British Muslim reactions to the Salman Rushdie affair 1988-89 and the First Gulf War 1990. Also, many of the detailed instructions given to enumerators and householders in later censuses were not provided.

Trouble with Farms at the Census Office: An Evaluation of Farm Statistics from the Censuses of 1851

Nevertheless, the major series can be noted, commencing with the abstracts of clerical residence from 1808 and the reports of the Commissioners for Building New Churches from 1821.

Census of Great Britain: enumeration abstract

The 1841 census was the first to list the names of every individual.
