Euro

It commits Britain to Europe; it commits us to playing an active, constructive and enthusiastic role in it. As President of the Commission, Delors pushed for stronger pan-European regulations in areas including industrial relations, health and safety, the environment and consumer protection. We are only at the start of our relationship with the Community.

1975 United Kingdom European Communities membership referendum

For good or for ill, British history since that date has been closely intertwined with the European Union. If we stay inside we can play a full part in helping it to develop the way we want it to develop. The new terms ensure that Britain will pay a fairer share.

The vote to join Europe in 1975 was based on a lie ... but at last we're getting our sovereignty back
