

Young Europeans in 1987

Office for Official Publications of the European Communities - How the young have forged European identity

Description: -

-

Social surveys -- European Economic Community countries.

Youth -- European Economic Community countries. Young

Europeans in 1987

-Young Europeans in 1987

Notes: Prepared at the request of the Commission of the European Communities, Director General for Employment, Social Affairs, and Education.

This edition was published in 1989

Filesize: 21.65 MB

Tags: #Eurobarometer #28.1: #Young #Europeans

Eurobarometer Reports on Young People

He is replaced by , the only premier never to contest an election as premier. In order to encourage businesses to commit to this cross-border qualification scheme, the Erasmus Pro programme must also contribute to the wages paid to European apprentices.

Hope and Glory (1987)

Platt, Assistant Professor of Biological Engineering, ETH Zurich, Switzerland, as the 2020 winner of the Eppendorf Award for Young European Investigators.

Eppendorf Award for Young European Investigators Goes to Randall Platt

Flyers' goalie would win the as MVP of the playoffs despite the team's loss in the finals.

Young Europeans in 1987 (1989 edition)

Part of a long tradition I regard the Erasmus exchange as the latest stage in a process of European integration that started during the Middle Ages, when a number of young people expatriated to get a better education. JEF is committed to comprehensive reform of the EU towards more , participation, transparency, efficiency and sustainability. All respondents, except those in school, were asked about formal education, satisfaction with training courses, assistance with job attainment through training, and receipt of a diploma or certificate.

ArchiveGrid : Interview, 1987

Mobility can be a lever for action to provide qualifications and access to jobs for young people. Bill, a young boy living on the outskirts of London experiences the exhilaration of World War II. The survey was conducted in conjunction with Eurobarometer 28.

Coronavirus: Is the EU's Erasmus program under threat?

Another key element is the demand for a unified foreign and security policy of the European Union. A total of 7,600 youths were questioned, or 600 per country with East Germany and West Germany each receiving 600 surveys, Northern Ireland receiving its own 200 independent of Great Britain, and Luxembourg receiving only 200 surveys.

Hope and Glory (1987)

We are in just such a situation today. Several questions pertaining to voting and politics include political party attachment, vote intention, and left-right political self-placement. In March 1969 they organized a demonstration on the spectators benches of the European Parliament, demanding its direct elections by universal suffrage.

European Youth Parliament Norway

Respondents in school were asked about current studies and the type of institution they attended, while those in vocational training were asked about when they started the program, length of attendance, opinions regarding completion, and trainee benefits. The Youth in New Europe report covers the results of the survey conducted in April 2003 in the 13 Candidate Countries.

Related Books

- Law enforcement and cross border terrorism
- Triassic flora from the Deep River basin, North Carolina
- Perspectives of Black popular culture
- Winged warfare
- Campaigning in America - a history of election practices