What have the funds gone to? The introduction of liquor into Enga has claimed thousands of lives, properties worth billions of kina have been destroyed, no basic services in remote areas, communities in turmoil, etc. Their performance since the beginning of the season has been solid. Our MPs must act responsibly before it is too late.

The appointment is just reward because he has done a lot to the people in the electorate after being left in the dark for so long. My question is how many of these people are from the working class staying in the surrounding areas? Murder is a serious matter and he must let the police handle it. The boys from Igam barracks, in full military fatigue, went into the heart of Lae with their weapons.
