Robert Edward Lee

Instead of awaiting McClellan's attack, he resolved to defend Richmond by dislodging the foe that threatened it. Lee was paroled and accepted the presidency of Washington College now Washington and Lee in Lexington, Virginia. Although the 152 delegates gathered in the capitol that first day, most of their meetings took place in the Virginia Mechanic's Institute, at the corner of Ninth and Franklin streets.

Robert E. Lee's Religion and Political Views

Slavery for Lee was a moral and religious issue, and not one that would yield to political solutions.

Robert E. Lee Wasn't a Hero, He Was a Traitor

Like Arnold, Robert Lee had an exceptional record of military service before his downfall.

Robert E. Lee's Religion and Political Views

He did not grow his famous beard until late in life.

Robert E Lee's Birthday in 2021/2022

Beginning in 1832, Robert Lee had a close but platonic relationship with Harriett Talcott, wife of his fellow officer. Grant, now in charge of all Union forces, camped in Virginia with Meade's Army of the Potomac, against which Lee was arrayed. Lee did not accept the swap until a few months before the Confederacy's surrender.

Robert E. Lee

Oh, we do expect the occasional empty chair. His efforts were mostly successful Savannah, Georgia, for example, would not fall to the Union until from behind in 1864 , but that success wouldn't become apparent for several years.
