7th Pay Panel: Salary expenditure of central government staff to exceed Rs 1 lakh crore in FY'16

Training of staff is vital to Government's ability to collect revenues and will be pursued.

Wages Earnings and Benefits

This assumes that an increment of 3 per cent and a Dearness Allowance increase of 2 percent will have to be provided to all employees under both Salaries and Grant-in-Aid Salaries. They feature historical background, current information and references, and many anticipate the emergence of the issues they examine.

Salaries & Wages

Particular problems are: Revenue is not as easily traceable as expenditure; small agencies find it difficult to give breakdowns of revenue and cannot identify the sources of inconsistencies between their submissions, the Auditor General's Report and Accountant General's Report. Public Corporations and Privatisation As noted in section III.

General government

The rigidity of the regulations also makes it hard to take action against public servants who are habitually late, absent from work or simply do not perform their jobs.

‘No salary cut for central govt employees’: Centre replies to ‘false’ reports

The Government which came in to office in 1992, reiterated its commitment to the Economic Recovery Programme, and thus committed itself to pursuing market-oriented economic policies. Government has begun to tackle some of these issues through the introduction of a job evaluation exercise, and a Personnel Record Keeping System.

Wage Bill and Pay Compression

Information must be processed by the Office of the Budget such as for the monthly releases, virements and supplementary provisions and by the State Planning Secretariat such as for monthly releases, supplementary provisions and programme changes. The monthly provident fund and gratuity contribution may change from April 1. This is, after all, a progressive tax.
