population was between 15,000 and 16,000 in 1486.¹ Members of the Sephardic Jews had to search in groups of 500 to 100 persons in procession through Toledo's streets to the cathedral and publicly confess their sins. Then they were "disarmed," that is prohibited in some ways to carry their arms, and prohibited to hold Jewish offices and to make alliances. The strength of these prohibitions can be seen in that many soon regained their old offices, in spite of the prohibitions. The real object was to make many Jews who were into the Catholicism in some, and to turn their Jewishness away from their Jewishness, and to have confidence about all his public records have disappeared, making it difficult to trace and positively identify who were Jews back then.

The Pharisees secretly perpetuated the Cabala (also spelled Kabbala, Qabbala, etc.), an ancient occult tradition from Babylon. This is what is known as Rabbinical Judaism. The illumination, magic, and astrology that came up the Babylonian tradition were hidden away in secret. Some Jewish scholars secretly repackaged again as New Age teachings it is passing into the Christian churches. The Catholic Church viewed the Jews as a special threat, but their response in some ways was improper, misguided and inadequate.

The New Testament concerning the Catholic Church's first concerning the Jews exposes two major threats to Catholicism.
