The Jesus of History: Man or Myth?

Then these scholars gave presentations at the meeting itself, arguing that Jesus had spoken some of the parables and that followers of Jesus created others after his death.

Who Were the Brothers and Sisters of Jesus?

They emphasize different settings, including accounts not recorded by the other writers. Indeed, I am sure the CDF would actively oppose it now if it gained any currency - Professor Collins is right about how scripture is traditionally used to bolster authority. Why Are There Differences in the Gospels? The holds that the authors of the gospels had no reason to invent embarrassing incidents such as the denial of Jesus by , or the fleeing of Jesus' followers after his arrest, and therefore such details would likely not have been included unless they were true.
