Butt Fumble

Suddenly we had a literature in which more children would find their own lives recognised. With the extra point, the Patriots took a 21—0 lead.

Building Materials

Set apparently in Manchester, where the kids are temporarily abandoned by the rather inadequate adults supposedly looking after them. With the undergraduate grant of the time he could now marry Vera, whom he had met back in that Leeds tax office. Demob found him near Cambridge, and, while announcing to the porter of the first college he saw as he left the bus — Emmanuel — that he'd like to study there, he was overheard by the senior tutor who offered him five minutes of his time.

Butt Fumble

Be passionate in good faith. One of the first post-war authors to see the need to bring a sense of realism to children's literature, John Rowe Townsend's Gumble's Yard is set within the urban landscape where crime festers on the fringes of society and children's lives are gritty and hard.
