During the threat of the Spanish Armada, he was made Governor of Hurst Castle; and a Spanish galleon having been wrecked near it, his wife begged the hull of the Queen, in which were found bars of silver and other treasure to an immense amount, which not only served to complete their pile at Longford, but also to enrich their steward Richard Grobham, who chiefly managed their business, procured a knighthood, and left a fortune almost equal to his master's. The line ended with Adam, who succeeded to the barony of Slesmouth, 7 Ed. What arti- facts in the picture might be African in origin? His son Thomas succeeded him in his Bedfordshire estates; and afterwards, Sir John Frembaud probably Thomas's son exercised the patronage of the church of Bow-Brickhill between 1336 and 1349.

It is believed that the family still exists in France. King the aforesaid messuage with aforesaid 5 acres came to Reginald King his brother, and from aforesaid Reginald to Elias King, and said Elias made no mention of the wife of Reginald King whom he had, nor of the children whom he had. This name, derived from Vandelicourt, near Beauvais, appears twice again on the Roll, as Venecorde and Vancorde.
