Millions more died in the gulags prison camps of Siberia. Espionage was a major concern for the United States government during the Manhattan Project.

Constitutional Rights Foundation

Goebbels' analysis of the trial: the Bolshevik government, he explained, was a Jewish business. Powers received a cold reception on his return home. Other Postwar Trials Many nations that Germany occupied during World War II or that collaborated with the Germans in the persecution of civilian populations, including Jews, also tried both German perpetrators and their own citizens who had perpetrated crimes during the war.

Great Purge

They held Powers for a couple of months or more before the trial. The network included: engineers Julius Rosenberg, Nathan Sussman, Joel Barr, Alfred Sarant, , a military aviation scientist , a civil design engineer McNutt , and a machinist Greenglass , among others.
