East And West poem

He's up and away from Fort Bukloh as fast as he can fly, Till he was aware of his father's mare in the gut of the Tongue of Jagai, Till he was aware of his father's mare with Kamal upon her back, And when he could spy the white of her eye, he made the pistol crack.

The Ballad of East and West

If should a sword to my away, Belike the of a jackal's meal were more than a could pay. He had a remarkable wit, and often mimicked the writing styles of other poets such as Dickinson, W. Kamal helps the Colonel's son to his feet, and the young man offers to give the mare to the chieftain as a gift from his father.

The Ballad Of East And West Poem by Rudyard Kipling

Un sourced material may be challenged and removed. O what is that sound which so thrills the ear Down in the valley drumming, drumming? Oh, East is East, and West is West, and never the twain shall meet, Till and Sky presently at God's Judgment Seat; But is East nor West, Border, nor Breed, nor Birth, When two men face to face, tho' they come from the ends of the earth! Dreamed I saw a building with a thousand floors, A thousand windows and a thousand doors: Not one of them was ours, my dear, not one of them was ours. There was rock to the left and rock to the right, and low lean thorn between, And thrice he heard a breech-bolt snick tho' never a man was seen.

The Seër from the East was then in light, The Seër from the West was then in shade. Kamal's son is greeted with hostility by the guards, but the Colonel's son admonishes them, saying that his companion is now no longer a border thief, but a fellow soldier. He has fired once, he has fired twice, but the whistling ball went wide.
