Point of Honor: The Continuing Exploits... book by Robert N. Macomber

The unit assignment and structure changed significantly, notably when 1st Battalion, 9th Cavalry Regiment, the division's most famous unit, was disbanded. Lists include date of enrollment, name, age, occupation, birth place, height, eye color, hair color, skin complexion, and how disposed i. Devereux could put perhaps eighty men on Wilkes, and he had approximately two hundred Marines, sailors, and civilian volunteers to defend Wake Island.

On the Distant Dream?

Because of the enemy's overwhelming numbers, friendly troops were forced to execute a limited withdrawal.
