votes are tabulated and redistributed would all go to Congress. The fragile consent of the governed would break down, and violence and authoritarianism would follow. Looking back, some of the worst days have given me the best stories and lessons.

The Origins of the United States Two

The system, of course, does have its weak points, especially insofar as it tends to frustrate the innovative elements within both parties.

U.S. Democracy Needs a Multiparty System to Survive

When you create a two party system, then you are building two distinctive platforms for political candidates to use.

Curbing Division and Derision: Why the Two

The reality is, if we're being human to the fullest, we probably won't have it all together all the time. Both believe they are the true America.
