Many thousands of ex-servicemen were assisted to go through college who could never have contemplated it before the war.

Clement Attlee

Attlee played little part in the events that would lead up to the , as despite Baldwin's threat to step down if attempted to remain on the throne after marrying , Labour were widely accepted not to be a viable alternative government due to the National Government's overwhelming majority in the Commons. Enoch Powell was pencilled in to return to the Cabinet with a brief to reform Whitehall.
