Acclaimed authors John McCain and Mark Salter describe the anatomy of great decisions in history by telling the remarkable stories of men and women who have exemplified composure, wisdom, and intellect in the face of life's toughest decisions. Fusce sed nibh eu odio posuere semper.

Are you better at seeing the big picture and less adept at gathering and evaluating details? How good a pilot is he? Each of his choices--Lincoln, Churchill, Sadat and Begin; baseball manager Branch Rickey and swimmer Gertrude Ederle; and philosopher of religion Reinhold Niebuhr--faced difficult choices, or hard calls, and McCain walks us through their thought processes, and his own, to show how character and decision-making are intertwined.
