Communications Act Revisions: Selected Issues for Consideration

The answer: as any financial institution knows, it is nearly impossible to lose money owning a local television station, and there will be cost cutting from scale economies with news reporting.

An Evaluation of the FCC's Cross

Developing communications technologies with common elements provide synergies that benefit both provider and user. The Senate approved, 55-40, a resolution introduced by Sen. The court found that the FCC had acted arbitrarily and capriciously in finding the incident indecent; the court did not address the First Amendment question.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION v. NATIONAL CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR BROADCASTING et al.

Externalities, both positive and negative, need to be considered in any policy analysis. Waivers of the divestiture requirement were granted sua sponte to 1 television and 1 radio combination, leaving a total of 16 stations subject to divestiture. We seek comment on how we should define the top ranked TV stations in a market.

Yahoo is now a part of Verizon Media

And despite their downplaying of their future prospects, a study by the American Journalism Review found almost all of these companies experienced double-digit growth in earnings in the year 2000. With him on the brief were Solicitor General McCree, Assistant Attorney General Shenefield, Frank H. Benjamin Compaine's main argument is that the consolidation of media outlets, across multiple ownerships, has allowed for a better quality of content.

FCC Releases New Media Ownership Rules

We seek information that would help us conduct our analysis. And the public those who know about it, anyway is overwhelmingly opposed to the deregulation. Measured on an aggregate, national basis, advertisers spend about 45% of all local advertising dollars on newspapers, about 16% on radio stations, and about 15% on broadcast TV stations.

FCC Approves New Media Ownership Rule

For the purpose of determining compliance with this National Television Ownership rule, television stations operating on UHF channels 14 and above are attributed with only half 50 percent of the number of TV households in the DMA, as opposed to 100 percent of the number of households attributed to stations operating on VHF channels 13 and below.

FCC Broadcast Ownership Rules

- In markets with 15-29 radio stations, a company may own six stations, only four of which may be in one class, AM or FM.

An Evaluation of the FCC's Cross

Federal Communications Commission et al. Many of the top Internet news sites, of course, are operated by newspaper and broadcast companies, but they are far from dominant: Of the top 30 news Web sites, fewer than half are affiliated with traditional media firms, 11 of which are newspapers, or newspaper chains. In September 2007, the FCC issued a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to establish service rules for the auction of a license or licenses for a network along the lines proposed by M2Z WT Docket No.
