An Ongoing voyage, 1492

The counter-commemorative pedagogy challenges and reinterprets dominant narratives pertaining to Columbus and greater European exploration. Fractious relations between the papal Curia and Roman officials engendered several unpleasant episodes for Faulus. Josse Bade, scholar-printer and friend of Erasmus, printed his first edition of Aldus's Latin grammar in April 1513.

The Printing and the Mind of Man Exhibition Concentrates on the History of Printing Technology & Texts Influential on Western Civilization : History of Information

S30S, with a final division of the material holdings of the printing corporation founded a half century earlier taking place on 6 May 1544.
