 Englewood Cliffs, NJ: Prentice-Hall; 1982.

The last choice : preemptive suicide in advanced age

. Too little attention is paid to how individuals, as subjects, are products of both external cultural and social influences on them, and of internal efforts and needs that determine their subjectivity.

Safe, Legal, Rare? Physician

The last choice: Preemptive suicide in advanced age. If assisted suicide becomes more generally acknowledged and accepted, preemptive suicide will almost certainly follow.

Assisted suicide and the ethics of self

Discussion of preemptive suicide goes beyond contributing to current widespread debate about assisted suicide.
