Charmwood College

Richmond School and Sixth Form College is a member of Areté Learning Trust, an exempt charity regulated by the Secretary of State for Education.

Aspects of Staffing

Any conflicts of interest policy should define clearly what is meant by a connected party.

Further education

Good governance has long been considered to demonstrate a robust organisation, and the converse the opposite. The aim of PSE education in the Tutor Group is to allow development of these and other ideas in discussion groups led by the form tutor.

DFE Performance Tables

Try again now or later. We have a very active programme of Careers Education and Guidance in the Sixth Form, which looks at all the options. The decisions you make about staffing your business can have dramatic effects on the quality of your work, your retention rates, and the level of customer service.

Sixth form college

Try again now or later. We also support with the UCAS Clearing process if needed on results day and beyond to help students secure higher education places.
