The official duties of the India House delayed the completion and publication of, begun in 1818, until 1822, and as a result of the delay it was taken for an imitation of although its composition had, in fact, preceded Scott's novel. Over the last generation, especially, a remarkable range of popular works from the period have been re-discovered and reread intensively. It was which Shelley used for many years, and Hookham had sent The Genius of the Thames to Shelley, and in the Shelley Memorials, pp.
