Type	Explanation
Speaker notation: J1a J4c	Jurors are referred to by arbitrary consistent numerals in the exercises. The numeral is preceded by a "J" to indicate that the speaker is a juror and followed by either "c" or "a," to reference whether the speaker supported the majority position of conviction or the minority position of acquittal respectively.
Overlapping speech: A: he [thinks] there's B: [yeah ]	Left square brackets on two successive lines by different speakers indicate a point of overlap start, whereas separate right square brackets indicate a point of overlap end.
Pauses: the (0.5) of that (.) she	Numbers in parentheses indicate silence, represented in tenths of a second. A dot in parentheses indicates a "micropause," audible but not readily measurable (<0.2 seconds).
Self-interruptions: An sb-	A hyphen indicates self-interruption, often done with a glottal or dental stop.
Breathing: control .hh and	Hearable aspiration is shown by the letter h, with each h roughly reflecting 0.2 second of respiration. Inhaling is shown by a leading period and exhaling with the lack of a period.
Rushed/slowed speech: > don' know < don' know	The combination of a "more than" and "less than" symbol indicates that the talk between them is compressed or rushed. Used in the reverse order, they indicate that a stretch of talk is slowed or dragged out.

Kendall and Blair reprinted the veto message in newspapers across the country, spinning the election as a showdown between democracy and aristocracy.

Debating Introduction

Students should listen closely to determine how other individuals are feeling and respond appropriately e.

Things to be Remembered in Daily Life by John Timbs, a Project Gutenberg eBook.

Smallpox had long since carried off 90 percent of the Quapaws, and just 1,000 whites traded and hunted around the French station Arkansas Post. Then the donee began, and, after occupying a half hour in explaining the emotions that agitated his manly bosom, pronounced a solemn vow that the watch would go down to his heirs as an evidence, etc.

Toasts and After Dinner Speeches (1903)

Its constitution, drafted by farmers rather than lawyers, was democratic and simple. It is not the first time that I have received tokens like this from my pupils; but it always leaked out before, and I was quite ready. It regards language learning as a behavior like other forms of human behavior, not a mental phenomenon, learned by a process of habit formation.
