As this report highlights, in fiscal year 2019 the agency made progress toward meeting the measures and objectives set out in our strategic plan.

Fiscal Year 2019 Annual Performance Report

The role of the institutions in solving the problems of the Cigano population is especially mediation—namely in the connection, facilitation and streamlining of the access to different services—health, education, housing, social security, among others, most of the time helping to read the officially published information.

This analysis begins by outlining an updated diagnosis of the educational situation of the Ciganos in Portugal. In a hiring case, for example, if all applicants including the charging party were rejected and respondent official hired his wife's nephew, the discrimination may not have been on a prohibited basis. R contends that it gives preference to applicants who are former summer employees and to children of employees who are students.

Example - R developed a management training program into which it placed one employee each quarter. In this example there are no employees in an identical position with the CP, an employee of R, working under supervisor Y, with a history of repeated tardiness. Department of Interior, and the Federal Aviation Administration of the Department of Transportation.

However, the real impacts and outcomes of these two educational offers among Cigano children and youth are as yet unknown. Additionally, through the Office of Field Program's State, Local, and Tribal Program, the EEOC maintains work sharing agreements and a contract services program with 92 state and local Fair Employment Practices Agencies FEPAs for the purpose of coordinating the investigation of charges dual-filed under state and local laws and federal law, as appropriate. Unlike the EEOC, not all FEPAs engage in conciliation.
