U.S. Foreign Aid to Israel

When the entire system is in full operation, our air defense forces and civilian population, as well as the strategic retaliatory forces, should have 15 minutes of warning of intercontinental ballistic missile attack. The number of such investment companies is expected to exceed 400 by the end of June 1962, compared to 109 in June 1960, thus expanding the supply of private capital available to small businesses. Activities under our cultural exchange agreement with the Soviet Union continue to progress mainly under private auspices.

This program should continue to be administered by the Secretary of Commerce to avoid establishment of an unnecessary new agency. There has been a gradual shift from guns to missiles on surface ships, and from conventional to nuclear power for submarines. The Carter Administration is in a very difficult spot.

Devrim's CDFM Module 3 Flashset Flashcards

Terminated, along with CFS, effective December 1, 1949, by memorandum of Secretary of Defense, November 14, 1949, with AS functions transferred to newly established Area Joint Committees AJC, each encompassing same area as its predecessor and reporting to senior field commander in area.

Magsaysay refused initially, stunning the president, but relented when he was presented a petition signed by 11,000 of his men asking him to run for Congress. The sharing of such clinics by groups of physicians and dentists is economical in terms of reducing capital expenditures for such purposes and leads to more complete care for the patient by enabling the practitioners to combine their diverse skills.

Foreign Relations of the United States, 1952

The provision of section 412 b of the Military Construction Act of 1959 requiring prior congressional authorization of appropriations for the procurement of aircraft, missiles, and naval vessels is inappropriate and should be repealed. This is essential to recruit and retain superior personnel for Federal programs, particularly in the middle and upper professional and managerial positions, and to overcome the severe competitive disadvantages with which the Federal Government must now contend in recruiting personnel. We now have evidence that Iran has just about concluded the purchase of a naval package from the U.
