Editorial Reviews This book just begs to be read aloud, with long pauses to take in the complexity of the gorgeous half painted, half collage illustrations. It was truly an honor to give this book our top prize.

Book Study: Chicken Chasing Queen

Harrington's storytelling style make the prose jump from page to ear. My daughter now wants to feed our chickens treats all the time well.

Chicken

When the girl finally manages to sneak up on Miss Hen in the grass, she discovers her prize surrounded by chicks, and the girl instantly reforms: I know you're a mama now.

Holdings: The chicken

The illustrations are a perfect match in spirit, and they move the tale along with equal verve, using the rich texture of collage, skilled brush strokes, celebratory colors and charming whimsy. Her second picture book, The Chicken-Chasing Queen of Lamar County, has already received much acclaim, being selected for Fanfare, The Horn Book's Honor List and named a Kirkus Reviews Editor's Choice.
