On the Move

The former Bromo Seltzer Tower building has been turned into studio spaces for both visual artists and writers. A judgement that's inexplicable on several counts, DNA, Dec 12, 2013. In spite of this progress, issues of accountability persist and urban governance often remains gender-blind.

About — theCoLAB

Cohen, Betsy and Kevin Donohoe, Anne E. The encounters pictured and imagined are those between men who have the freedom to take their pleasures in many urban spaces and women from a class subject to them who have to work in those spaces often selling their bodies to clients, or to artists. One-bedroom apartments in Havana are around per month in the city center and drop to as low as elsewhere.

Feminist research in urban studies and planning

The campaign has so far received coverage in The Guardian, Museums Journal, and Islington Tribune. Ultimately Hufeisen is able to capture the essence of the area and acknowledge that Berlin is still a growing city. Feminist Review, No 19, March 1985.

13 Emerging Urban Artists Who Are Making Their Mark Around The World

With subjects like elders, beggar children or refugees, he aims to draw attention to those the society tends to forget.
