Staff Profile

Abandoned in obscure places and left to endure the gnawing criticism of mice, or effaced by the simple ravages of time and circumstance, they have vanished without trace, taking with them our chance to recover the intimate secrets of a deliberately obscured corner of the medical marketplace. .

I contribute at Stage 1 to HIS1044 Aspects of British History. Those particularly interested in the delicate balance between economic and social change and popular culture will find Baer's book a fresh interpretation of early nineteenth-century English society. As a result, the OP riots were, politically, an opportunity for those without the franchise to be heard on the issues of tradition, the moral economy and equity.
