The dust jacket for hard covers may not be included. Global Leaders for the Twenty-First Century profiles twelve such leaders from business and government and discusses eight key attributes necessary for successful leadership in the future.

The Axial Age and the Problems of the Twentieth Century: Du Bois, Jaspers, and Universal History

For organizations, the next century and millennium will bring much greater complexity and tougher challenges that we can only begin to imagine. The sky was bluest when I could beat my mates at examination-time, or beat them at a foot-race, or even beat their stringy heads. One must assume the good intentions of coworkers and not reject them as people, even when forced to reject their behavior or performance.
