1938 Collected Poems of Laura Riding

Their activities included meetings for the reading and discussion of poetry and philosophy, and they published their own poetry magazine, The Fugitive, which appeared from 1922 to 1925.

Bibliography

In this regard, and especially as to tone, Ashbery comes closest to Riding in her early prose—the short stories in particular. In 1925 she sailed for England and, during thirteen years abroad primarily in England and Majorca, wrote some twenty books of poetry, criticism, and story. London: Cassell, 1965; New York: Doubleday, 1965.
