Weber Reads Beowulf

Not even King Hrothgar summons him.

Beowulf an Ideal Hero

The story itself, which I imagine is fairly true to the original, is not one that appeals to me greatly, being all about battle, super-human strength and power in battle, and the noble pursuit of one's enemies at all cost.

Beowulf an Ideal Hero

What you have heard before is nothing. Hrothgar and his minions, meanwhile, are boorish idiots who speak in comical Monty Python-style accents.

Beowulf: A Hero's Tale Retold by James Rumford

It is a beautiful retelling of the ancient tale.

+ Beowulf, Retold For Children

A beautifully illustrated adaption of this timeless classic. See also , , and.

Thus begins the battle between good and evil, for lying in wait and anxious to challenge the ogre Grendel is a young man, strong-willed and fire-hearted. This retelling of the classic Anglo-Saxon poem maintains the integrity of the original masterpiece through a shortened version in the prose form.
