Italian fashion history of the 14th and 15th century.

All through the later middle ages, Northern Italy was still divided into lots of small independent city-states. By the thirteenth century, the Angevin dynasty of Norman kings had eroded the role of noblemen in English government.

Literacy and Education of the Later Medieval Italian Laity

Though the schools of these convents were chiefly intended for members of their own order, it is likely they also admitted lay students. Just in case one wore a girdle, they made sure that it was richly ornamented.

Literacy and Education of the Later Medieval Italian Laity

Byzantine scholars migrated to Italy during and following the Ottoman conquest of the Byzantines between the 12th and 15th centuries, and were important in sparking the new linguistic studies of the Renaissance, in newly created academies in Florence and Venice.

Life in Italy During the Middle Ages

From this base, they acquired political power initially in Florence and later in wider Italy and Europe. Moreover, the inland city-states profited from the rich agricultural land of the Po valley.
