The Little Prince Symbols, Allegory and Motifs

The Morality Play probably arose in part from the desire of religious writers to teach the principles of Christian living in a more direct and compact fashion than was possible through the Bible stories of the Mysteries. In many places, however, detached plays, or groups of plays smaller than the full cycles, continued to be presented at one season or another. I get that ultimately they're all just archetypes, and we all have some of each quality within us, but still.

A Critical writing on the book, The Presence Of by Michael Barnes

The Mystery Plays seem to have reached their greatest popularity in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries.
