James Grier, FRSC

And although many of the following chapters focus on Anglo-Norman England, where the evidence is especially abundant, we have taken up case studies from history-makers on the Continent as well, signalling that, although our book is the first to treat this complicated subject from our particular perspective, the authors hope to encourage further study. Medievalists are the most collaborative, forward-thinking academic researchers in the humanities. A fragmentary proper troper survives as the endpapers of BnF lat.

Adémar de Chabannes (989)

In constructing the sequentiary, the libellus of untexted and partially texted sequences for the full liturgical year, over which he had sole discretion, Adémar clearly strove to make his collection accord with practice at St Martial, in regard to both the choice of pieces for each feast and the melodic fabric of each chant.

untitled, Journal of the American Musicological Society

Among the forty or so distinct pieces or portions of pieces which I have identified in his hand among Constance manuscripts, a remarkable thirty-two belong to the melismatic, soloistic genres of graduals, alleluias, offertories and responsories Table 6. Drawing on the insights of Autenrieth, the many scholarly contributions since her work appeared in the 1950s, as well as some recent discoveries of my own, I shall introduce these individuals one by one.

List of medieval composers

Boone Cambridge MA, 1995 , pp. The addition was always understood as a roll call of the cathedral chapter in 1080s until, in a comprehensive rereading, Karl Schmid argued that Wolferad had been manipulating the names to take a very particular stance on local internal politics, the community having wrestled in these very years with the competing claims of imperially and papally appointed bishops.

It must be said that my border crossings are only ever uneventful, if sometimes irritating. Many other scholars have generously offered support and shared materials over the years, including Charles M. WallaceHadrill London, 1960 , c.

Opera liturgica et poetica

The chapter of Constance Cathedral c. In both cases the poetic addition is one among many.
