Paris Review

I seek their abrasiveness out. Rousseau befriended fellow philosopher in 1742, and would later write about Diderot's romantic troubles in his Confessions. This is a guest post by the literary critic.

Paris Review

The book is full of practical details about working as a musician that suggests that Steig spent a good deal of time listening to veterans of the road. Her first book, Menagerie 1928 , was a collection about animals illustrated with woodcuts by Helen Sewell. Strunk 1930, 491-496; Draheim 1993, 322—344 focused on the Dido episode.

The Paris Review

This is now known today as a characteristic of Romanticism. Everybody derides paraphrase and everybody does it.

Mid

No person ever so much enjoyed their attention. If I wanted a violinist I would try to find such a man.
