I didn't find her prose as interesting, but I like the way she sections her work into variations on a theme. This book was a lovely compilation of both essays and poems.

The Magic of Sensory Words (with a List of 75 Example Phrases)

I love this collection of mostly essays, and a some poems, by Mary Oliver.

Poems Prose Photography by Ann Michener Winter

The world is a lot faster than it used to be. This is an example of good repetition.

Věra Linhartová

There are so many proses, poems, and indeed profound thoughts one could discover from the book. The turtles in Provincetown could be the turtles on the shore of a Michigan lake, some sixty years ago.
