An Impact Of Protestant Reformation On Europe

Probst, in his book Demonizing the Jews: Luther and the Protestant Church in Nazi Germany 2012, shows that a large number of German Protestant clergy and theologians during the Nazi Third Reich used Luther's hostile publications towards the Jews and Judaism to justify at least in part the anti-Semitic policies of the National Socialists. As the number of Protestants in France increased, the number of heretics in prisons awaiting trial also grew.
