Comparing this to any other existential novel, or even lumping it under the existential umbrella, unnerves me.

The Apple in the Dark by Clarice Lispector

They dont really explore in depth.

É um desmemoriado de mundo. As such, I would rather have the odiousness of compared to many of the 'nice guys' I've run into many a time, as enough of the world has been compromised and set back by such pathetic filth spewed out by those in power that I'll not be normalizing it in the media I design to consume for my own personal entertainment.

In the Dark by Grateful Dead on Apple Music

A retelling of the jewish creation myth that probes our dark interiors. Para empezar no puedo creer esa forma de escribir, por momentos pensé que era una deformación de la traducción.

In the Dark by Grateful Dead on Apple Music

Num pulo macio, que fez o jardim asfixiar-se em suspiro retido, ele se achou em pleno centro de um canteiro — que se arrepiou todo e depois se fechou. If only I could read Portuguese I might have an easier time with this work.
