Language Policy in Britain and France (Open Linguistics Series)

Conseil National des Langues et Cultures Regionales The Conseil National des Langues et Cultures Regionales, chaired by the Prime Minister, was formally established in 1985, partly as a response to the pressure throughout the 1970s from regionalists and to follow Mitterrand's promises to them. No document could have been better calculated to reinforce the divisions within the Sinn Féin movement between pragmatists and idealists.
