Both paintings are grounded by a calm, underspoken majesty of nature, the fleeting effects of changing weather captured using Post-Impressionist technique. The retrospective features nearly forty large-scale paintings drawn from major national public and private collections.

Beatty, J. W. (John William), 1869

He painted The Evening Cloud of the Northland in 1910, a view of a forest fire burning in distant hills. Beatty was very much part of the milieu of the most forward thinking painters of the day. There are many strong biographies that you may refer to on our website, such as Cecilia Beaux, Edward Hopper, and Paul Sample.

J.W. Beatty / The Evening Cloud of the Northland / 1910

Artist artworks for sale and wanted. He was also active in organizations such as the Colored Lincoln Republican Club. Drayton, the daughter of the late Rear Admiral Beatty; and commissioned on 7 May 1942, Comdr.
