The U.S. Is Even More Guilty Than Pol Pot

WE FIGHT AGAINST GOD to snatch believers from Him. At Phnom Penh, two million inhabitants were evacuated on foot into the countryside at gunpoint. The paper predicted a famine in the country, where millions of farmers, their land lying fallow, had been herded into either the cities or remote armed camps. As growing world attention focussed on the plight of war-torn Cambodia and on the bloody violence of the Pol Pot era, Pol Pot himself increasingly became a liability to his Chinese backers and the underground DK leaders.
