The World Survey on the role of women in development 2014: Gender equality and sustainable development

Through and shifting the burden of inclusivity to employers, female legislators can have a profound impact on bending the trend of women departing the workforce and on realizing gender equity.

How Fewer Women in Politics Impacts Policy and the Economy

Over time, the commitment to nutrition for women and babies became one of the key projects in this program, with much less attention to sexual and reproductive health education, family planning, abortion, and treatment for victims of sexual and gender-based violence for which Canada had expressed a commitment in its National Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security. The US could be closing the gender pay gap.
