However, also such documents as were not published by the IFSYPO are presented, for instance the pamphlet published by Willy Trostel Was wollte Münzenberg? Unabashed chauvinism Should war break set in spite of this, it is their duty to intercede for its speedy end, end to strive with all their power to make use of the violent economic and political crisis brought about by the war to rouse the people, and thereby to hasten the abolition of capitalist class rule.

Youth against militarism: The legacy of Karl Liebknecht

However, political considerations may have been significant, too: the International with Karl Liebknecht as its President was too far to the left for the liking of the German party majority. Sundström and Lieutenant Puntervold who is in fact one of the editors of the Socialdemokrat were among the speakers, which itself was characteristic, though Puntervold had by this time already handed in his resignation from the army.
