CONTENTS FIRST VILASA 1 In the first vilasa, the following subjects are covered-the need for taking shelter at the lotus feet of a spiritual master, the characteristics of a bona-fide spiritual master; the symptoms of a genuine disciple, the spiritual master's and the disciple's tests of one another, the process for worshiping the spiritual master, the prayer of a disciple, the glories of the Supreme Lord, the glories of Vaisnava mantras, the qualified candidate for chanting these mantras, the processes of purification, and the processes for purifying mantras. The Kumkumam prasadam of Kamakshi is offered first to Arupalakshmi with prayers and is taken from her feet by the devotee for adorning his forehead, according to custom and practice in this temple.

Sri Hari

Back of Book: In order to arrange for the observance of vows and rituals for those who desire to obtain the ultimate goal of life, krsna-prema, the most merciful Lord Gaurahari, who is the deliverer of the people of Kali-yuga, instructed His associate, Srila Sanatana Gosvami, to compose the Vaisnava smṛti, Sri Hari--vilasa.

Kamakshi Vilasam Slokam

It is involved in Manufacture of other electrical equipment. Like Saundaryalahari, this satakam is also having lots of Yoga-sastra information. The purpose is that if one remains fixed in his own position, according to his qualifications, he will gradually make advancement.

SHRI KAMAHSHI VILASA

This sloka is to be chanted at the time of snana. That is why, in each chapter, Srila Sanatana Gosvami has mentioned the name of Gopala Bhatta Gosvami. The five groups are called as Arya satakam, Kataaksha satakam, Mandasmita sataka, Paadaaravinda satakam.
