Richard Dowling (writer)

My personal favorite is the remote island location: barren and desolate, bordered by a wild blue sea, too sparse to have any hiding places and too far from the mainland to swim to, with a single, unimposing house.

The Joys of Mystery Fiction's Most Enduring Tropes < CrimeReads

The Kilrush Post office: With commendable enterprise Mrs M. The man of the house came back to the fire, sat down, and all was silent save the howling of the wind, and the thunderous tumult of the billows pierced shrilly, now and then by the shrieks of waves shattered into spray against the ramparts of the land. The boy's chamber was no more than twelve feet square.

Top 10 Great Serial Killer Novels

Whiskey was scarce in the village, as there was no public-house. He had fired that gun, and his son knew he had fired that gun, although he could not kn w it by the sense of touch, or by the sight of smoke, for he had fired so that the boy could VOL. Mitchel was a writer who showed undoubted genius when the fit was on him; but much of his work, in his History of Ireland, is slovenly and not a little even of the Jail Journal is rhetorical and long drawn out.

100 Must

Westby having declared Major J. And, of course, a remote island. Having witnessed the humiliation of Napoleon at the Nile, and again at Alexandria finally he saw him in his fallen greatness on board the Bellerophon, when a prisoner going to St.

The Weird Sisters on Apple Books

Today the tenants on the estate of Mr. He had forgotten what had passed.
