Mestizaje was the impure consequence of rape or female sexual deviance. Being mestizo in Peru was a racialized class fact, where class was not only judged in terms of income but of education and origin.

Reconstructing Race: Racism, Culture and Mestizaje in Latin America

The celebrated writer Mario Vargas Llosa revived them when he said: Indian peasants live in such a primitive way that communication is practically impossible. For example, women tend to reproduce aesthetic standards that see light skin, straight hair, and a narrow nose as beautiful; these standards, oriented to whiteness, are internalized and naturalized. The survey methodology shows in a systematic way some things that had previously been shown qualitatively.

Teaching the History of Race in Latin America

Credited as being foundational for comparative slavery studies and for refining approaches used to examine Latin American socio-racial systems.

Race, or The Last Colonial Struggle in Latin America

Officials tried to make good on this belief by extending citizenship rights to freed-people at the moment of emancipation. New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2014.
