Danger Within 1959, directed by Don Chaffey

No matter how intricate the planning, how well executed, escape attempts are met by tragedy as the sadistic camp commander is waiting to not only foil the escape, but to also kill the escapees in cold blood. A few points made in this book were shocking, but overall the constant change of emphasis made a basic idea that financial incentives drive behaviour in a way that isn't always for the public good was obscured.
